First-Time and Re-Entry Student Add/Drop Policy:

The first fourteen calendar days of a student’s first quarter is designated as the add/drop period for first-time and re-entry Bryan University students. This is the period when students may add or remove courses in order to finalize their schedules for the quarter. Students who cancel their enrollment during this period will not incur tuition charges; however, they may be responsible for books and fee obligations, including the application fee. Students who wish to make course changes must request approval from the Bryan University Registrar.

Continuing Student Add/Drop Policy:

The first seven calendar days of each quarter beyond the first quarter is designated as the drop/add period for continuing. This is the period when students may add or remove courses in order to finalize their schedules for the quarter. Students who cancel their enrollment during this period will not incur tuition charges; however, they may be responsible for books and fee obligations, including the application fee. Students who wish to make course changes must request approval from the Bryan University Registrar.

Holidays Observed:

New Year’s Day, Presidents’ Day, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, Day after Thanksgiving, and Christmas Day. Holidays observed indicate those days business operations for the University will experience reduced staffing or closed. All online courses will remain open and available for student and faculty engagement.

Each expected graduation date includes two weeks of scheduled break time annually (if applicable to a student’s enrollment period).

Bryan University reserves the right to change program start dates, break weeks, and graduation dates at any time.
