Book and Resource Fees

Books

Students are able to purchase books through Bryan University as a convenience. The University uses a combination of electronic (non-print) books (eBooks) and physical print books for its courses. In instances where an eBook is used for a course, each student must purchase access to the eBook. Long-term access to eBooks varies by publication, but is limited, in some instances, to two years from the time of validation. In instances where physical print books are used for a course, the textbook must be purchased by each student. An up-to-date book list by course is available at:

<http://www.bryanu.edu/consumer-information/>. Bryan University reserves the right to issue used books when deemed necessary.
